nnecting the world and beyond

Geneva Digital Week

Advanced Search

General Secretariat

The General Secretariat of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) is tasked with providing high-quality and efficient services to the organization's members. It manages administrative and financial matters, organizes key meetings, delivers conference services, disseminates information, ensures security, and carries out strategic planning and corporate functions, including communications, legal advice, finance, personnel, procurement, internal audit, and other services.

SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Secretary-General oversees ITU's management and acts as the organization's legal representative.

Secretary-General's Corner

DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Deputy Secretary-General assists the Secretary-General, provides key management support, and fosters collaboration across the full range of ITU's activities.

Deputy Secretary-General's Corner

Key Objectives

- Informing membership on activities and financial status
- Effective organizational management
- Intersectoral coordination
- International cooperation and agreements
- Sharing information and promoting ITU

General Secretariat Departments

The Departments of the General Secretariat are: Office of the Secretary-General, Strategic Planning and Membership, Human Resources Management, Financial Resources Management, Conferences and Publications, and Information Services.

QUICKLINKS

- ITU Headquarters: New Building Project
- ITU Coordination Committee for Terminology (ITU CCT)

© ITU 2026 All Rights Reserved

Back to top